GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS/ TIPS

• During Orientation for the Contest, a member of the Technical Committee will review the contest packet with you.

• Before the Contest, carefully study the contest packet:
  ✓ Review the list of available spices, herbs and ingredients in contest packet.
  ✓ Menu – Write a menu of what you will produce
  ✓ Write a Food List and a Preparation and Cooking Schedule designed to be ready during the specific service times identified in your packet.

• The competitors will present two copies of a menu that includes a salad, a soup, and two entrees of their own choosing following the competition guidelines. The menus must be turned in at the beginning of the competition.

• Please use only as much of each ingredient as is necessary. Return unused portions to the supply tables.

• Contact a judge to look at your waste before removing anything from your station.

• You may work on any component of your menu at any time. i.e.: You can begin working on your stock and/or soup during your knife cut time.

• You will present one (1) plate to the tasting judges for evaluation and one (1) display plate for the public to see

• Raise your hand and ask for assistance if there is anything that you do not understand. There will be a period just before the start of the first session when all questions will be answered for all contestants to hear. Once the competition starts, any questions about technique or definitions, etc. will not be answered. Questions about where to find ingredients and the like will be answered.

• Remember two things – This is about LEARNING and it should be FUN. If at any time you feel overwhelmed and feel that you cannot continue, speak to a judge or member of the Technical committee. We are here for you!
